

FOG DAY INFORMATION

There are some days in Tianjin when early morning fog is too thick to permit the safe transportation of students to school. On these mornings the message 'Today is a Fog Day' is passed to all parents and employees by means of the school's Emergency Telephone Tree. On declared Fog Days, the school day will start exactly 2 hours later than normal, and buses will therefore pick up students exactly 2 hours later than the normal time. Once a Fog Day has been announced, this decision will not be altered for any reason.

On days when the fog is unusually persistent, the director may announce a further delay to the start of the school day by means of the Emergency Telephone Tree.

On Fog Days there is a special school schedule. The time allocated to every lesson, and to lunchtime, is reduced. There is no morning recess. Thus it is possible to teach every lesson despite the late start to the school day.
