Working Learning Acting TOGETHER

Dear Parents

As you are aware, we have a staff workday calendared tomorrow, which means a nice long week-end for you and your children! Each school year we calendar eight full non-student workdays to enable the entire staff to come together to collaborate and attend to a variety of school-wide goals, something that isn't possible for extended periods when students are present on campus. Tomorrow we will focus on a variety of topics related to both improved teaching and learning and general improvement across all aspects of school programmes and operations, including leveraging XR technology to support teaching and learning (secondary), inquiry-based pedagogy (elementary), and our upcoming CIS/WASC/IB accreditation evaluation in May (all staff).

Later on in Blaze you will read a report from our Athletics Directors about last weekend's ACAMIS Volleyball Tournament in Hong Kong; however, I would like to take the opportunity to highlight just how well the students represented our school. IST is one of the eight founding members of ACAMIS (now there are nearly 100 members), and although we are not a large school we continue to 'punch above our weight' with regard to participation, engagement, performance and leadership in the association. IST was the smallest school in our division at last weekend's tournament with several of the schools boasting over 1000 students, and yet our teams were first placed following the round robin. In the end the boys placed second and the girls fourth, and while they may have been disappointed not to achieve the highest accolade by winning, they certainly won from my perspective. I am so proud of the way in which our students continue to rise to the challenge, be it in academics, arts, or athletics. Congratulations to all of the athletes who participated last weekend; you did yourselves and our school proud!

The IST Board of Governors will meet next week, and of the many items on the agenda, a couple will likely be of considerable interest to the IST community: teacher retention for next year and the commencement of construction work on our new gymnasium. Although the final deadline has not yet arrived, it appears that perhaps as few as three IST teachers will leave our school this year, meaning a 95% retention rate, which really is terrific! We anticipate ground breaking for the new gym in the next 3-4 weeks, during which time the Board will also make some final decisions about the interior decoration of the new gym, but just to give you a sneak preview, here are some of the initial renderings!

When meeting with parents at Wednesday's PFO Committee meeting, a concern was raised by some parents about the conduct of some children on the school buses, and in particular elementary students who are apparently being very disrespectful of the bus ayi. We will be discussing this concern with the students and the ayis, but I kindly request that all parents of children who use the bus service please discuss the importance of appropriate and respectful behaviour when riding the school buses. Thank you for your active support!

Wishing you all a most enjoyable long weekend!

Our Mission

The IST Library is a friendly place where our community is inspired and challenged to think critically, read widely, act ethically, value creativity, and defend the right to access information.

Library Assembly & Book Character Dress-Up Day

The library assembly last Friday highlighted the theme "Reading is My Superpower," inspiring students to discover new books and celebrate their favorite stories. Thank you for your support in making Library Week a fun and memorable experience for our young readers. The Book Character parade and costumes were a highlight of the assembly. It is always so fun to see students and teachers dressed up as their favorite book characters! Please enjoy some photo highlights from last Friday.

Parent Book Club

Our next Parent Book Club selection is the novel Anxious People by Fredrik Backman. We will meet in the library to discuss the book in December (date TBD). The library has copies of the book in English, Chinese, and Korean. A digital copy in English or Chinese is also available upon request.

All interested parents are welcome to join us for a book discussion, coffee, and treats, even if you haven't had a chance to read the book.

Yesterday, our Grade 5 students had an unforgettable experience diving into the world of the musical CATS!

The day began with a warm welcome to our special guest - DJ Muchen from Tianjin Radio Station, who captivated the students by sharing the rich history of this iconic show, setting the stage for the excitement to come.

The room buzzed with energy when a surprise virtual guest, Lucy, a performer from the cast of CATS, joined us!

Lucy engaged with our students, answering their eager questions and providing a fascinating glimpse into her world as a stage actor. As a memorable highlight, she performed "Memory" in Mandarin, enchanting everyone with her powerful voice and adding a local touch to this classic song. Her virtual presence left the students inspired and curious about life on stage.

After the interview, DJ Muchen kept the energy high by leading our students in a fun sing-along session, lighting up the entire class with music and laughter. To cap off this exciting event, a professional dance teacher joined in and taught the students how to strike the iconic cat poses, turning our classroom into a lively scene of playful “cats.” It was a magical day filled with music, dance, and hands-on learning that brought *CATS* to life in a way our students will never forget!

The student cartoon by Jiyun Lee, Jiyeon Jung, Jeong Min Park, Yeseo Choi, and Eunsung Cho, is part of a CAS project for the IB Diploma Programme. This cartoon, "The Battle of Viruses and Vaccines," explains how vaccines work in the body. When viruses invade, immune cells like T-cells and B-cells are alerted to fight them. Vaccines train these immune cells to recognize and effectively combat viruses by producing antibodies. As a result, vaccines help keep the body strong and healthy by preparing it to fend off infections.

Action Group READY, SET, GO!

By Vanessa Grade 9

Last week, our action group, Ready, Set, Go!, held a session with Grade 5 students, focusing on building their presentation skills using the PVLEGS model: Poise, Voice, Life, Eye contact, Gesture, and Speed. We chose this activity because the students are preparing for a presentation to parents later this month, and we wanted to support them in becoming more confident presenters.

Two leaders from our group began with a brief introduction to PVLEGS, explaining the importance of each skill. Then, we divided both our secondary group members and the Grade 5 students into six small groups. Each secondary group was assigned one skill to teach, while Grade 5 students rotated through each station to practice a specific skill for 4-5 minutes. To keep it engaging, each secondary group prepared interactive activities that related to their assigned skill.

Although we ran out of time and couldn't have every Grade 5 student rotate through all six skills, the session was productive, and each student left with new insights on effective presentation techniques.

ACAMIS Recap:

The ACAMIS Orange Division Volleyball Tournament in early November highlighted the skill, resilience, and sportsmanship of our IST teams, showcasing the strength of our athletics program. Both boys' and girls' teams delivered impressive performances, with the boys just missing out on defending their championship title and the girls leading the tournament after the round-robin stages.

The boys started strong, defeating HKA and SIS, and remained undefeated on day one. The girls rebounded from an initial loss, ending the day 2-1 and carrying their momentum into day two. At the end of day 2, both teams finished pool play at the top of their groups with 4-1 records, advancing confidently to the semifinals.

In the semifinals, the boys earned a decisive win over SIS, securing a spot in the final, while the girls narrowly missed victory in a hard-fought match against Harrow Beijing. They then succumbed to NIS in their final game, finishing fourth overall. In the boys' final, despite an illness in the lineup, they earned a close second-place finish that displayed some outstanding volleyball. Manaka, Karin Jeremy and Brandon received the team all-star awards.

Though the outcomes were not as hoped, our players represented IST with excellence and dedication. It is important to note that we are the smallest school in our division with some schools having more than tripple the amount of students that IST has. Our students represented us in an exceptional manner and should be extremelt proud of their performance. Special appreciation goes to our eleven senior players, whose contributions have been the foundation of our teams. Their legacy and sportsmanship inspire the entire IST community.
